BBQ CHICKEN FLATBREAD

For every order of this dish sold through December 31, 2022, Rincon Brewery will donate $2 to Environmental Defense Center.

With a business name that references one of California's most famous surf spots, it stands to reason that the folks behind Rincon Brewery care about the ocean. That's why owner Luisa Hyatt chose to donate proceeds from sales of the restaurant's BBQ Chicken Flatbread to the Environmental Defense Center (environmentaldefensecenter.org).

“The EDC works to protect what makes the 805 so special for all living beings on land and in our local waters,” Hyatt says. “They look at environmental challenges, advocate for open spaces, and more.” Until now, the Chicken BBQ Flatbread has only been served at Rincon's Santa Barbara location, but for the months of November and December, it will be available at all locations.
